Celebrity Basketball Game

An outstanding evening of laughter, family fun and basketball in celebration of black history month. The Falls Church City All-Star Team will play New York City's finest, the Harlem MagicMasters! The MagicMasters barely beat our Falls Church All-Stars last year! Do we win this year? The game is fun, exciting and "edu-taining." If you love basketball, fun, laughter or history you won't want to miss this!

Enjoy a pre-game discussion "Tribute To John Isaacs", who was an outstanding 1930's professional basketball player, experience "A Step Back in Time" Special Half Time show featuring the 1910 Black World Basketball Championship Team, "The YMCA Washington 12th Streeters"! See the winners of the "Charles Drew Outstanding Student Athletes" awards!

Pre-Game Panel Discussion

"Remembering John "Boy Wonder" Isaacs; Basketball Pioneer Extraordinaire"

John Isaacs, a key member of the Harlem Renaissance basketball team, which showcased some of New York City's greatest black players during the Depression and captured the first world professional championship was a giant of a man, who spent the last 50 years of his life working with youth. Last year he was one of the Tinner Hill 2008 Living legacy Award-ees. Mr. Isaacs passed away last week at the age of 94. A panel will discuss the implications of Mr. Isaacs' gifts to the world and basketball. Film clips of Mr. Isaacs, while in Falls Church last year will also be shown.

Time: 5:30 - 6:30 p.m.

Location: Falls Church Community Center

223 Little Falls St., Senior Center Room
